

A Passionate Flower to the Gardener by K Myers

Come live with me, and be my love,
And we will all the pleasures prove,

Let's take an adventure, through the fields,
The farther we walk, the more thy heart yields.

Our lives would be so long and free,
If you would come and lay with me.

And with our long, deserving break,
We could talk for hours, not a thing at stake.

You know my heart, and know my mind,
You know I keep any animal I find.

But that's okay cause I know you
Love to love animals, like I do.

Once it gets too dark to see,
We can go inside to watch scary movies.

We'll laugh at all the cheesy scares,
But once it's done we'll go upstairs.

We could get into bed, with no intention to sleep,
Both feeling safe knowing we're each others to keep.

If you stay with me tonight,
I'll trust you to hold me tight.

I am a flower, who's prone to wilt,
But I'll only flourish with the love you've built.

If these delights, thy mind may move,
Then live with me, and be my love.
